

Athena

Massimiliano Raggi

Athena è una lampada da tavolo caratterizzata da rettangoli (la base) e ovali (il paralume) che si fondono insieme. Il paralume può essere realizzato con tessuti materici, come cotone e tessuto effetto marmo bianco Calacatta. La base è in rovere tinto marrone scuro con inserti di finitura nickel lucido per ribadire un senso di equilibrio. Athena si pone come un vero e proprio "passepartout".

Athena is a table lamp characterised by rectangles (the base) and ovals (the shade) that blend together. The shade can be made with highly tactile fabrics, like cotton and white Calacatta marble printed fabric. The base is in dark brown stained oak with polished nickel finish inserts to reaffirm a sense of balance. Athena stands as a real "passepartout".
